

Join us as we present

“Keeping Downtowns Vibrant in the Digital Age”

Wednesday, October 23, 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.
St. Peter’s First Community Church
206 Etna Avenue

Presented by:
John Bry, CMSM
(Certified Main Street Manager)
Director for the
Oakland County Michigan
Main Street Program
(Detroit Area)

Historic downtowns across the nation are experiencing resurgence in popularity as destinations for shopping, dining, community celebrations and residential options. Economic development professionals and community leaders everywhere are beginning to realize that having a strong and vibrant downtown is good for business and the local economy as cities and towns compete for investment in attracting and retaining talent.

Chamber of Commerce

OF HUNTINGTON COUNTY

- Bry consults with communities across the United States
- He speaks on trails, GIS masterplans, Brownfields, etc.
- Teaches how to revitalize large and small communities
- He believes vibrant downtowns are economic drivers
- Strong downtowns help attract and retain talent

$10 includes lunch

RSVP to (260) 356-5300

or Steve Kimmel at skimmel@huntington-chamber.com